

Respectfully,
Janet B. Fiore, Esq.

Thank you for your Honors time and consideration.

pages, thereby requiring permission to file his reply in more than ten (10) pages.

ated otherwise. Upon drafting and completing his reply, petitioner would seek to be at no, at Section C thereof, reply memoranda are limited to ten (10) pages unless permission for the Hon. Stephen C. Robinson's "Individual Practices" at p. 2, Memorandum over receives the Courts answer for permission after May 30, 2008.

of eight (8) days; no further requests of extension are necessary unless where the Courts previous rate of reply to petitioners correspondence was a permission to file said reply in more than ten (10) pages but less than twenty tion, and he has completed said reply, petitioner now asks this Court to grant where petitioner has been granted an extension to file a reply to respondents'

Re: Smith v. Artus, 07-CV-9261 (SCR) (LMS)

Hon. Madam:

Lisa M. Smith, Magistrate Judge
of States District Court, Southern District of New York
2 Quarropas Street
New York, New York 10601
Clerk of the Court

Decreed letter motion.

SO ORDERED

Extension granted.

Signature of Judge

May 13, 2008

5/19/08

May 13, 2008

Great Meadow Correctional Facility
P.O. Box 51
Conestoga, New York 12821-0051

